

Congressional Proclamation

Honorable Nita M. Lowey

WHEREAS, the Hospice and Palliative Care of Westchester is proud to honor Michael Amoruso, Esq. for his extraordinary support and care for families and individuals facing serious and life-threatening illness;

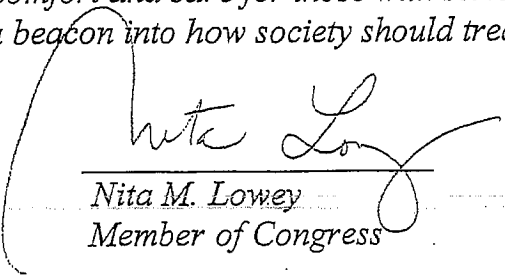

WHEREAS, Michael Amoruso, Esq. has blended his extraordinary intellect with an unusual ability to empathize with those most vulnerable;

WHEREAS, Because of Michael's far-reaching knowledge of elder law and estate planning, he knows that the rights of the elderly need to be protected and therefore has formed ElderCounsel LLC, the premier elder law and special needs planning document drafting system that will guide so many attorneys advocating for the rights of their most senior clients;

WHEREAS, Michael was the recipient of the NYSBA Elder Law Section Award for his extraordinary efforts in drafting the New York State Compact for long-term care, a law that will offer an alternative to Medicaid coverage for long term care services; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: Michael Amoruso, Esq. be honored for his commitment to providing compassionate comfort and care for those with serious illness and offering the Westchester community a beacon into how society should treat the sick and elderly.
